BE A PART OF HISTORY IN THE MAKING!

HOME IS THE ISLANDS™ IS NOW A HAWAI'I CONCERT & MUSIC DOCUMENTARY FILM SHOWCASING THE HISTORY OF HAWAI'I'S MUSICAL ARTISTS AND THEIR PLACE IN POP CULTURE

A Kaponono Production, the Home in the Islands™ a Henry Kaponono & Friends Concert on June 18, 2022, at the Tom Moffat Waikiki Shell will now also become a full-length music documentary film intended for cinematic release, national/international broadcasting, and streaming platforms with an expected release date in mid to late 2023.

"Our goal is to elevate the artistry and values of our Hawaiian culture worldwide and expose our unique and talented local musicians and performers to an international audience." Co-Producer, Henry Kaponono

Home In The Islands™, the film will be co-produced by renowned concert film & television music producer Joe Thomas and Grammy-nominated native Hawaiian performer Henry Kaponono. The concert portion will be filmed live before thousands of adoring fans at the world-famous Tom Moffat Waikiki Shell in state-of-the-art High Definition (4K) by acclaimed TV Producer Bryan Spicer's Hawai'i-based company, Sight & Sound Productions.

"Sixty years in the making, Home In The Islands™ the concert serves as the focal point of our story that explores the rich tradition of Hawai'i's music scene of the past and present while bringing to light the many often unrecognized accomplishments and influences of Hawai'i's favorite sons & daughters." Co-Producer, Joe Thomas

This Hawai'i concert & music documentary will showcase the history of Hawai'i's musical artists and their place in Pop Culture, proudly featuring several of Hawai'i's most iconic recording artists and talented performers of today. Combined with Hawai'i's beautiful scenery, these amazing musical performances serve as a soundtrack to our island's stunning beauty.

"I'm looking forward to working with Henry and Joe on this inspiring musical collaboration project by providing equipment and resources through Sight & Sound Productions. It's imperative to continue to foster Hawai'i's creative industries and create opportunities for local talent to grow and prosper at Home In The Islands™. I'm excited to see this concert showcase and elevate Hawai'i's talent on a national scale!" Bryan Spicer

Kaponono Productions is honored to have the concert and film presented by the Hawaiian Islands, Hawai'i Tourism Authority, Native Hawaiian Hospitality Association, and DBEDT Creative Industries. These organizations are positioned to strategically manage Hawai'i's economic goals, cultural values, traditions, community desires, and visitor industry needs. In addition, these organizations are working together to provide opportunities to accelerate the growth of Hawai'i's Arts, Culture, and Creative Economy sectors by supporting initiatives that expand the capacity of Hawai'i's creative entrepreneurs' entertainers, and production workers.
